TRANSCRIFT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE Transcriber's Office FLOOR DEBATE

February 28, 2002 LB 600

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, on the left aisle for you life, on the right aisle for you death. Now it depends on whether you're from the city or the country as to which this bill represents for you. To those in the farm area, it offers life, even though it doesn't offer life to all in the farm area because some are going to be messed over by this process. This process in this bill being imposed like Procrustes' bed, where one size is going to fit all, is not, in fact, going to work that way in terms of everybody being treated equitably. I would like to ask Senator, Senator Jones a question because I don't see Senator Bromm. Oh, yes, I do. Senator Bromm, I'd like to ask you a question.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Bromm, would you respond?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Bromm, I'm putting you...this question to you because you haven't been deeply involved in the discussion itself. If this bill becomes law, as it's written now, do you think all people who have agricultural or horticultural land will be pleased and benefitted by it?

SENATOR BROMM: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think there will be people who have ag land and horticultural land who will be cursing the Legislature for having done this? Maybe that's a strong word.

SENATOR BROMM: Yeah.

SENATOR CHAMPERS: Will be upset with the Legislature for having done this?

SENATOR BROMM: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Members of the Legislature, the only point I'm trying to get across is that even some who said they will support this bill know that it is not going to be perceived as fair. So who are you trying to please? Ricky Nelson, that great philosopher, who died before his time,
